The Cotton Markets.

NEW YORK COTTON MARKET.

New York, July 25.—Headway in either direction was insignificant on the cotton exchange to-day. The market started quiet, with prices down 2 to 3 points and soon sank a point or so further, under Southern and local seiling pressure. By the close of the first hour the early decline had been supplanted by a net riso of 2 to 4 points on a flurry of profit taking and demand for the January eption by the foreign contingent, By midday, however, the market was again very duli and back to the close of yesterday. In the afternoon values changed searcely a hair's breadth. The market finished the day steady in tone with prices net 2 higher to 3 lower.
